

Examination instructions for Master of Pathology MedEx.

1. The entrance examination consists of 4 sections:
 - Section A
 - Histopathology
 - 15 True False multiple-choice questions
 - Section B
 - Chemical pathology
 - 15 True False multiple-choice questions
 - Section C
 - Microbiology
 - 15 True False multiple-choice questions
 - Section D
 - Hematology
 - 15 True False multiple-choice questions
2. There is negative marking within the question and the minimum score for each question is ZERO (0)
 - a. Each correct answer (a true statement indicated as true, or false statement indicated as false) will be awarded with one mark (+1).
 - b. Each wrong answer (a true statement indicated as false or a false answer indicated as true) will be deducted with half mark (-1/2).
 - c. Statement with no answer will automatically be given zero mark (0).
3. The duration of the examination is 75 minutes.

Scope of Knowledge for Master of Pathology MedEx.

The examination will cover the basic and practical aspect in anatomic pathology including but not limited to genetic and forensic pathology, hematology, chemical pathology and medical microbiology including immunology.